

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Teacher Education (Literacy), Assistant Professor (#54406) Tenure-track

Department of Teacher Education

http://www.unk.edu/academics/ted/Teacher_Education/

College of Education

http://www.unk.edu/academics/coe/College_of_Education/

Teach core methods courses in the areas of literacy at both the undergraduate and graduate levels; supervise early field experiences, practicum and/or student teachers; teach classes using distance technology as well as traditional format; advise undergraduate and graduate students; conduct research in area of specialty; work collaboratively with teachers and administrators in UNK's Partner Schools Network; serve on department, college, university, and state-wide committees; and opportunity to sponsor student organizations.

Required: Earned Doctorate Degree in Reading or a related field (ABD will be considered if within one year of completion); have (or have held) a U.S. teaching certificate; have or have held a valid teaching certificate issued in the U.S.; minimum of three years K-8 teaching experience in the U.S.; evidence of potential for scholarly work.

Preferred: Demonstrated knowledge of best practices in P-12 literacy; ability to develop non-traditional teaching formats; strength in addressing multicultural needs; evidence of positive impact on student learning; and experience teaching web-based classes.

Start Date: August, 2012 Competitive salary and benefits.

Applications completed by February 1, 2012 will receive full consideration.

For more information and to apply – visit <http://unkemployment.unk.edu>

Only applications completed at the above website will be accepted.

Applicants needing accommodation under ADA should contact the Director of Human Resources at (308) 865-8655

Direct questions about the position to: (308) 865-1546

Direct questions about the on-line application process to: (308) 865-8655 or employment@unk.edu

The University of Nebraska at Kearney is an ADA/Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity institution and participates in E-verify